FROM DREAMS TO CHAMPIONS MEET & GREET WITH JOSEPH SCHOOLING CUM OFFICIAL OPENING OF THE SPORTS GYM IN CHINESE SWIMMING CLUB (CSC)

Dreams really came true for 100 aspiring young club swimmers as they spent an awe-inspiring morning with the national hero, Joseph Schooling, over an exclusive meet and greet session at the club's Grand Ballroom.

In his opening address, an excited Joseph expressed, "I am honoured to be part of the CSC family and I will be swimming for CSC from now on."

The 1-hour session included a Q&A segment where the youths posed questions and received a live response from their idol. The highlight of event was the book signing of "Hello, My name is Joseph Schooling", where proceeds from the sale of the photo books would be channeled to the Make-A-Wish Foundation, as well as a personal photo moment with Joseph.

The programme soon adjourned to the Sports Complex as Joseph officiated the opening of the Sports Gym and unveiled the wall with his personal quote - "Remember Why You Are Here".

Joseph's gold medal feat at the 2016 Olympic Games is a testament that no dreams is too huge to conquer. Club President, Mr Edwin Lee shared, "The rhetorical quote shall serve as a constant reminder to our up and coming sportsmen and sportswomen to set their sights on the ultimate goal and to reach for the pinnacle of their sport. As they continue to refine their skills and put their hearts into pursuing their passion, they too can taste the sweet victory like Joseph did."

The facility was designed and furnished with the latest fitness equipment which included a free weights station ideal for dry land and strength training.
